POLLY AND HER PALS

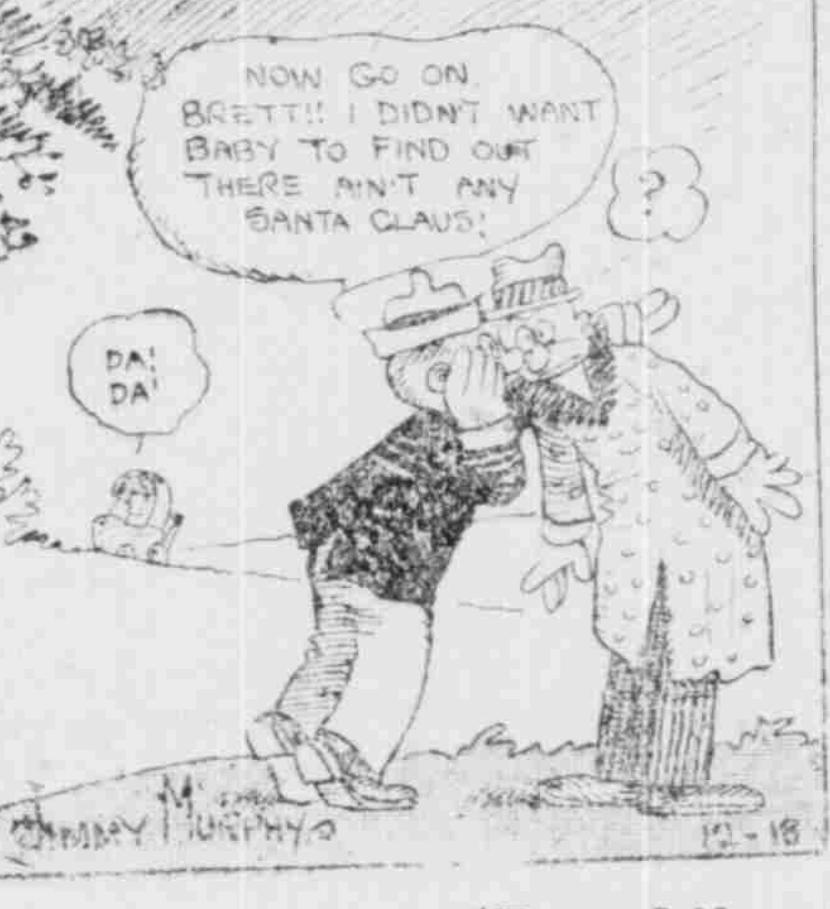

The most famous piano in the world, the instrument presented to Richard Wagner by King Ludwig of Bavaria and on which the famous musician composed his greatest music dramas, has been found and is now in New York. Long lost, it was discovered in Germany by Robert H. Prester, American soldier. Arthur Bodanzky, first conductor of the Metropolitan Opera House, is shown playing.

"Barleycorn Twins" of Congress

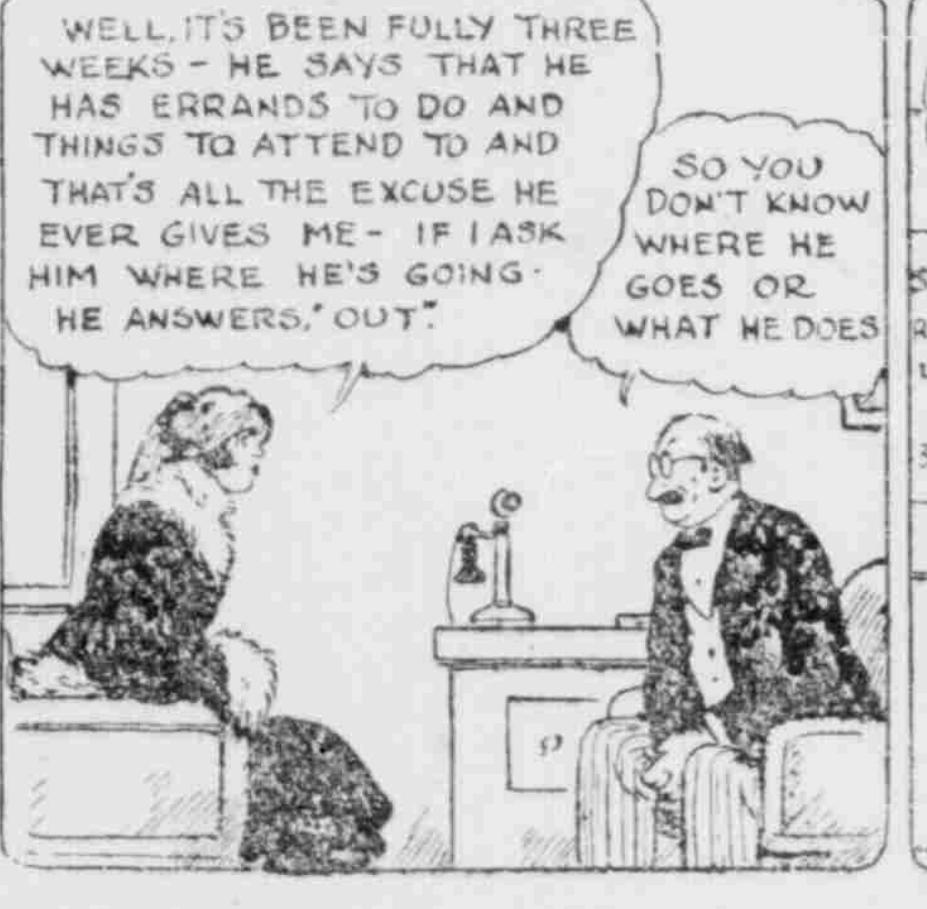

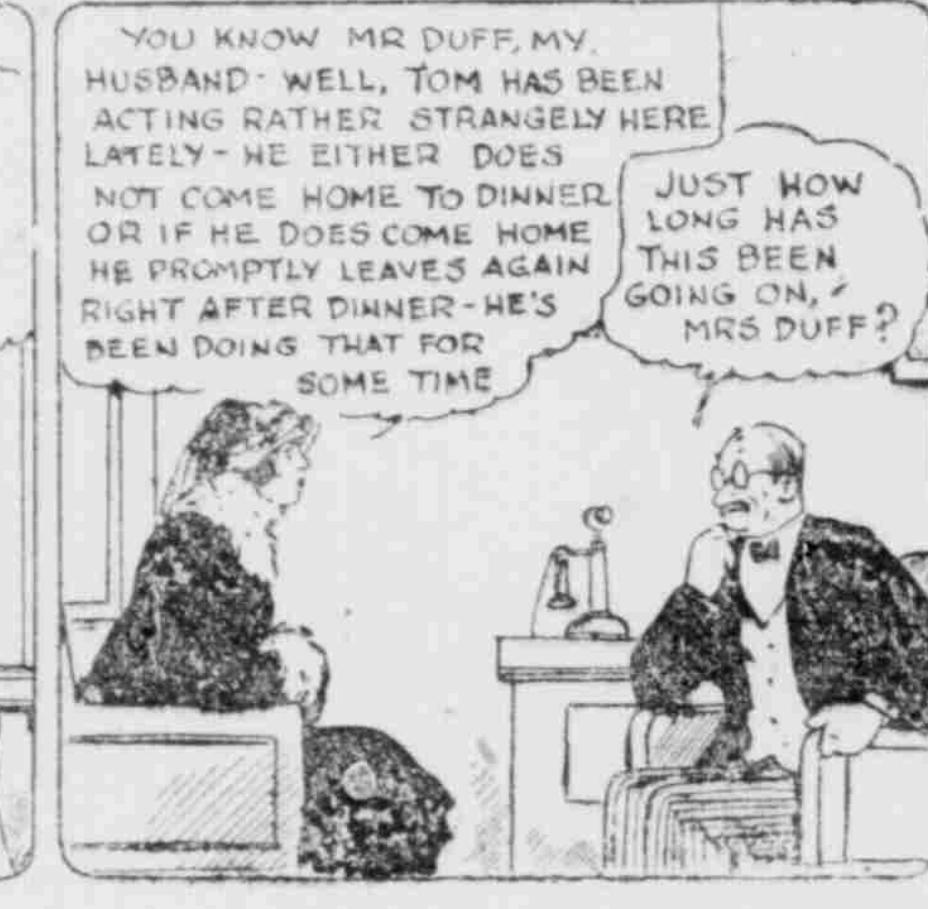

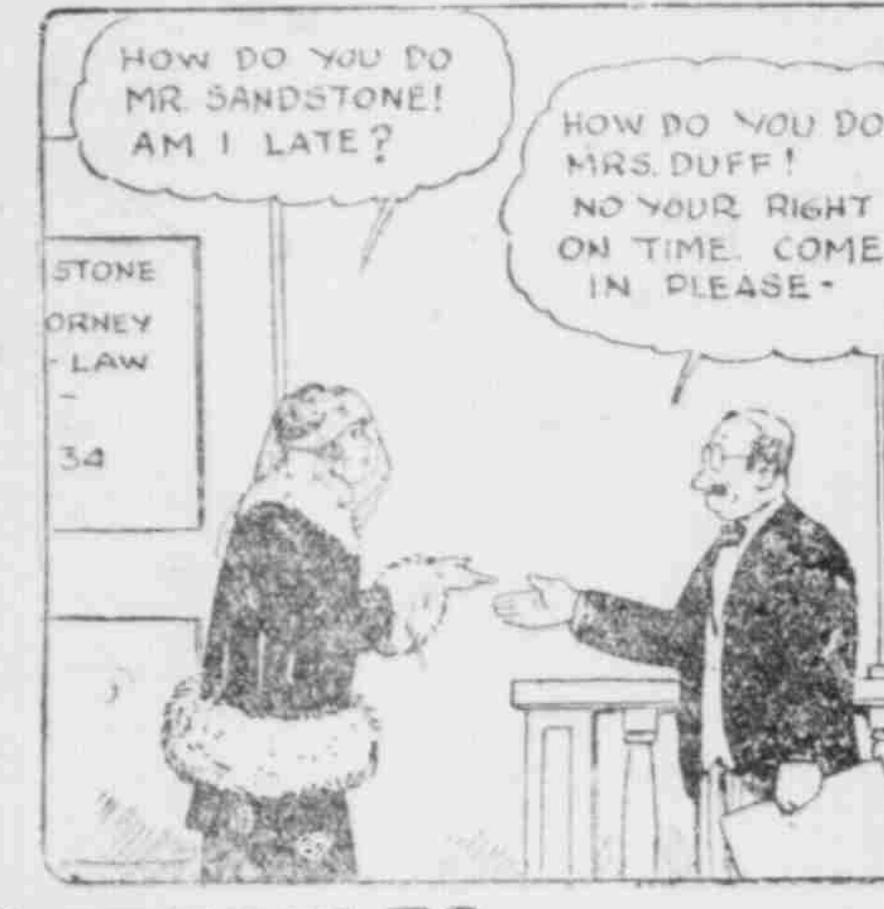

Two of the wettest wets in Congress are shown here congratulating each other on their proposed changes in the eighteenth amendment which would virtually wipe it out. They are, left to right, Congressman George H. Tinkham of Massachusetts and John Philip Hill of Maryland.

Fete Day of the Midinettes

On the Feast Day of St. Catherine, the girls of Paris who are single and unmarried are entitled to the patronage of the saint. In fancy dress, the midinettes enter spinsterhood by celebrating on the boulevards. Here is a young admirer stealing a kiss from one of the maidens.

Winter Sports at Chamonix

Ty Cobb's First Snow in Decade

For the first time in ten years, Ty Cobb had his chance to make a snowball which he promptly threw at Big Ed Walsh in front of the Hotel Commodore in New York where the baseball magnates are meeting. Cobb has been spending every winter in his Georgia home. Here is Ty (left) with the old White Sox spit-ball artist.
